

Reformers

By: Melody Hwang

---

Intro (x2): C#m E B A

Verse

C#m                    B                    A
 I am a child of the Most High King
 C#m                    B                    A
 He has freed me and adopted me
                          F#m                    A                    C#m
 No longer a slave to fear or shame or who I am
                          B                    A                    G#
 I will step out and dare to dream, to dream!

Chorus 1

                         C#m E
 We are the reformers!
                          B                    A
 And we believe Him at His Word
                          C#m E
 We're the greatest dreamers!
                          B                    A
 Our eyes will see heaven come
                          C#m E
 We are the reformers!
                          B                    A
 And we believe Him at His Word
                          C#m E
 We're the greatest dreamers!
                          B                    A
 Our eyes will see heaven touch this earth

Chorus 2

C#m                    E
                          We dare to believe
 F#m                    G#
                          We dare to dream greater things
 C#m                    E
                          We dare to step out
                          F#m                    G#                    C#m
 And see our dream become reality

Verse 2

C#m                    B            A

I am free to live victoriously

C#m                    B            A

Jesus is alive and lives in me

                  F#m                    A                    C#m                    B

No longer a slave to fear or shame or who I am, I will step out

                                  F#m                    A                    C#m

'Cause I have been set free, all things are possible for me

                  B                    A                    G#

I will step out and dare to dream, to dream!

Bridge

A

It's through our lives, yeah, with our eyes

                  F#m

We'll see His kingdom come

                  C#m

As the sons of God, arise and shine

E

Awaken a new dawn